Practical Reminders

Every now and then it is a good idea to be reminded of certain basic standards by which we as disciples of Jesus are called to live, particularly when we gather as one to worship. Consider this bulletin insert one of those occasions.

Appropriate Attire

Now that summer weather is upon us we have an opportunity to consider appropriate attire to be worn at Mass. And in this consideration the first point must be to address what motivates us to wear the clothing we choose. All of us have to admit we put at least a little thought into choosing what we are going to wear. If, for example, we were to go to the doctor's office for an appointment, we would expect our doctor to be wearing a white lab coat, even though that lab coat neither adds nor takes away from his or her knowledge of medicine. Who can explain what's behind that? In the same way, if a police officer were to stop us along the highway, we would expect him or her to look like a police officer. Again, who can explain why that is? There are many more examples we can imagine that compare to these two. We have to acknowledge that, somehow, clothing is our way to express externally what is going on internally. The doctor approaches the sick person with a vast amount of knowledge about health and diseases and so on. And that knowledge or attitude is communicated with just a simple lab coat. The police officer communicates to the public that he or she is an agent of security for the community by dressing in a particular way.

In just the same way there must be something reflective of our approach to God Himself in the way we dress to offer Him worship. Our external dress expresses our heart's desire to worship Him. Therefore, it is important to think about the way we dress when attending Mass. This would necessarily exclude clothing one might wear to the beach or a softball game, such as sweatpants, running shorts, flip-flop sandals, Budweiser t-shirts, and so on. If one finds this is the kind of clothing he is accustomed to wear to worship our Lord, he might take another look.

On Time

Continuing with the reason we dress appropriately at Mass; there's a corresponding reason for us to show up on time for Mass and be present until at least the final blessing. Of course, circumstances arise in which something beyond my control prevents me from being on time for Mass, so we are speaking about when a person is consistently late. The Mass has an inherent integrity to it; we follow a logical sequence, always beginning with the Penitential Rite. It is a disadvantage when a person usually late never takes the time to call to mind his or her sins as part of joining in the offering of Christ to our Heavenly Father. In addition, arriving late can be a real disruption and distraction for others in attendance.

Easter and Christmas

These citations below from the "Catechism of the Catholic Church" make it quite clear what the expectation of the Church is regarding Sunday and holy day Mass attendance. Though anyone reading this might be considered the "choir to whom the pastor is preaching" (i.e., those who faithfully worship God in Mass attendance are the ones most likely to pick up a bulletin), it is possible you may know friends or family members who may attend Mass only occasionally.

Some people might have the mistaken notion that it is acceptable to receive Holy Communion when attending Mass infrequently without confessing this sin against the third commandment to keep the Lord's Day holy. More than likely these people are not even aware of this expectation of the Church, as shown below, though one can hardly escape the clear expectation from God Himself who wants that we come to Him, not for his sake but for ours.

The Lord commands that we remove the plank from our own eye before attempting to remove the speck from our brother's eye, yet there is still no question the obligation is placed upon us in charity to care for our brother's spiritual welfare. If we know such circumstances apply to our family or friends, we are called upon to present this truth in as charitable way as possible.

Missing Sunday Mass is a grave sin.

#2181 The Sunday Eucharist is the foundation and confirmation of all Christian practice. For this reason, the faithful are obliged to participate in the Eucharist on days of obligation, unless excused for a serious reason (for example, illness, the care of infants) or dispensed by their own pastor. Those who deliberately fail in this obligation commit a grave sin.

One who is aware of committing a grave sin must not receive Holy Communion without first having reconciled through confession.

#1457 According to the Church's command, "after having attained the age of discretion, each of the faithful is bound by an obligation faithfully to confess serious sins at least once a year." Anyone who is aware of having committed a mortal sin must not receive Holy Communion, even if he experiences deep contrition, without having first received sacramental absolution, unless he has a grave reason for receiving Communion and there is no possibility of going to confession. Children must go to the sacrament of Penance before receiving Holy Communion for the first time.

May 2025

Main Work

The 75th Anniversary Planning Committee was formed in February 2025 as an ad hoc group to plan and carry out events celebrating the 75th anniversary of the dedication of Blessed Sacrament. These celebrations align with the worldwide Jubilee Year, allowing us to reflect not only on our church's history but also on our spiritual journey together. While we've already enjoyed a fun, community-centered celebration, two more spiritually focused events are in the works for later this year. This committee is doing both the corporal work of organizing joyful gatherings and the spiritual work of deepening our parish's unity and faith.

Did You Know?

Our recent block party celebration almost ran into a humorous hiccup—the beer license limited attendance to 150 people. Though we wanted a huge crowd, our best (and unofficial!) estimate was just under that number. We shut down the block, brought in food trucks, beer and pop, and made memories as a parish family. Laughter, food, and fellowship filled the street as we honored the church's anniversary in style!

How can you be involved?

We welcome any and all volunteers who are excited to help plan or support our upcoming events. Whether you love brainstorming ideas, handling logistics, decorating, or just want to lend a hand the day of, there's a place for you! The committee members have poured in more hours than you'd imagine—and with more help, the work becomes lighter and the joy spreads further.

Your unique gifts and time can help make the next events just as meaningful and memorable. Contact Father Morin if you would like to join the group.

Impact in our Parish and Community

At the heart of this committee is a shared love for our church and a desire to bring people together. Each member brings their own talents, backgrounds, and perspectives, enriching the group with a sense of family and purpose. Through our work, we aim to foster a spirit of homecoming and unity, both in our church building and among those who gather in it. These events are not just celebrations—they are acts of faith that strengthen our parish identity and witness to the life we share in Christ.

does not disappoint.

The Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother,
and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit,
reawaken in us the blessed hope
for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us
into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within
both humanity and the whole cosmos
in the sure expectation
of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee
reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread
the joy and peace of our Redeemer
throughout the earth.

To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever. Amen.

Oración del Jubileo

Padre que estás en el cielo,
la fe que nos has donado en
tu Hijo Jesucristo, nuestro hermano,
y la llama de caridad
infundida en nuestros corazones por el Espíritu Santo,
despierten en nosotros la bienaventurada esperanza
en la venida de tu Reino.

Tu gracia nos transforme
en dedicados cultivadores de las semillas del Evangelio
que fermenten la humanidad y el cosmos,
en espera confiada
de los cielos nuevos y de la tierra nueva,
cuando vencidas las fuerzas del mal,
se manifestará para siempre tu gloria.

La gracia del Jubileo
reavive en nosotros, Peregrinos de Esperanza,
el anhelo de los bienes celestiales
y derrame en el mundo entero
la alegría y la paz
de nuestro Redentor.

A ti, Dios bendito eternamente,
sea la alabanza y la gloria por los siglos. Amén.
