OCTOBER 6, 2025, OCIA - ADULT CONVERT CLASS - This year's Adult Convert Class (OCIA – Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) begins Mon. evening, Oct. 6th. These classes are designed specifically for people who are considering the possibility of joining the Catholic Church, but we encourage others to attend, to have any questions that they may have answered. Consequently, the content of these classes will be educational and/or a review to our precious Catholic Faith. More important, we have a little more than a couple of weeks to consider someone we may know who is looking for something more in life & extend an invitation for them to join us. This is the time to be offering prayer in a special way, that the Lord might grant us to know how to speak to the person we might invite in the right way, at the right place & at the right time, calling on the Holy Spirit to direct our thoughts & actions.

We will meet on Fridays at 10 AM. Updates or last-minute changes (due to weather, construction, etc.) will be posted through the group text. Please text Bailey Kindler (402-277-6496) with any questions or to be added to the group chat! Even if you can't make it to Pray & Play but would still like to be a part of the Mom's Group, we'd still love your company through the group chat conversation and through prayer.

It is important that you have another person praying with you for safety. Go to 40daysforlife.com/en/lincoln to sign up. The dates have the number of people who have signed up for specific hours (i.e., a 1 indicates one person has already signed up for that hour & when you add your name it will change to 2). The goal is to have 2 people praying every hour during the 40 days. For help signing up you can contact Mary Ryan at 402-617-2769, mryan1438@gmail.com, or Cathy Turner at 402-202-1614 or with any other questions you may have. Why
Cabrini Is A
Must See
Movie

Sunday, September 14th, 7 pm

St. Patrick's Finnegan Hall, 6126 Morrill Avenue, Lincoln NE

Fr. Mike Schmitz: (paraphrased) The primary reason people came to this country back in the day was because they believed in the idea of this thing called America. This movie exemplifies what civilized this country which was family and church.

Cabrini: The world is too small for what I intend to do.

Noted as a powerful and old-fashioned epic film, this movie is the true story of America's first saint. As an Italian Catholic missionary nun, Sr. Cabrini worked tirelessly and wouldn't take no for an answer. At the turn of the 20th century she founded a "peerless" orphanage in New York and then built a worldwide network of charitable organizations and homes in the decades to follow.

If able to search: "Cabrini movie review."

Note all the positive and powerful reviews for this film.

Audience Says: Cabrini is a powerful reminder of what can happen when people are willing to make sacrifices for the things they believe in.

THE NATIONAL CATHOLIC BIOETHICS CENTER

All parishioners are able to take advantage of the NCBC's Free Personal Ethics Consultations, which help patients and their families understand and apply Church teaching to the difficult medical situations they face. Our ethicists are available 24/7 by phone and email, and this service is free of charge.

As a member of the consultations team, I can attest to the significant impact we have on the lives of family members who do not know if they should withdraw treatment from their loved ones at the end of life, health care workers who are unsure about participating in certain job-related activities, and couples who are seeking guidance on the Church's teaching on reproductive medicine.

Here are links to the March 2025 bulletin inserts for you to share with your parishioners:

- Living a Catholic Life, "Practical Objections to Contraception"
- Making Sense of Bioethics, "The Welcome Outreach of Perinatal Hospice"
- Bioethics Public Policy Report

Here are links to the archives of Living a Catholic Life, Making Sense of Bioethics, and NCBC webinars. Feel free to use any of these resources in your parish ministries.
