The integration allows the individual parish conferences the benefits of incorporation in the areas of tax exemption, tax reporting, fund-raising, and annual reports while allowing conferences to operate as representatives of your parish. All parishes SVDP conferences will continue to ask parishioners for donations and each parish will continue to direct how funds raised are spent in serving the poor in the Lincoln Diocese. The great works of your parish SVDP volunteers will continue to demonstrate the generosity of your parish family. Starting October 1st, the Lincoln Council of SVDP will provide tax receipts for all your parish collection basket donations as well as donations made through the designated SVDP poor box or otherwise send to the parish for contributions to SVDP. Thank you for your continued support! Yours Truly, Bryan Dahlberg, President, Lincoln Council of St. Vincent de Paul Society
